Valhalla #12, 10 January 1969, is a joint production of the Project Analysis Corporation and the DWE Press (and is DWE Pub #128). The magazine attempts to cater both to those who follow postal Diplomacy (hence the game -- 1968AB -- the press releases, news of game openings, etc.) and to those who play other wargames (hence our several kinds of classified listings, club news, etc.), and to encourage members of each group to investigate the other.

Readers whose Permanent Listings first appeared in Valhalla #5 must renew their listings (through Chris Wagner) in order to have them appear in #13. Entries in both the "Permanent Listings" and the "Postal Locator" columns are made without charge, and those listed need to subscribe to either Valhalla or Strategy and Tactics.

S&T, by the way, is available from Chris Wagner at $7.50 per year (6 issues).

"Diplomacy is a registered trademark of Games Research, Inc., from whom the game may be purchased for $7.50 postpaid (48 Wareham St., Boston, Mass. 02118). The game is also available from PAC at Chris Wagner's address, for the same sum... a saving of 50¢ or more over the store price.

It has been 4 weeks since #11, and in that time both the "Winter 1904" and "Spring 1905" moves were made in our game. Both moves appear below.

Underlined moves do not succeed. The Austrian Army Trieste is annihilated under the provisions governing countries in temporary civil disorder. The Russian Army Constantinople is annihilated for lack of a retreat.

DEADLINE FOR "FALL 1905" ORDERS IS FRIDAY, 31 JANUARY 1969

MOVE ANALYSIS The elimination by Turkey of the Russian Army behind his lines was a neat bit of maneuvering which has removed an irritating thorn from Turkey's side. The only open space adjacent to the Army Constantinople was Ankara, which was closed to its retreat because it had been the scene of a standoff during the movement portion of the season. Actually, the Russians would have been better off to order "A Con-hold," since then the Turkish "A Arm-Ank" would have succeeded, vacating Armenia and making a Russian capture of Rumania certain in the Fall.

The apparent teaming of the French and Turkish against the long standing alliance of Russia and Germany has left the other powers out in the cold. Italy cannot hold onto Brest this Fall, although he cannot be deprived of Munich, and Austria's silence has virtually assured his rapid diminution. England is also in serious straits, since Russia is sure to take both Sweden and Norway (which center Russia already occupies) and Germany to capture Belgium, leaving him holding only the German capital. The stage is now set for a struggle of the Northern Powers versus the Southern, with no room left for the "little nations." The end of 1905 should -- barring some upset -- see the lineup 16-15-3, with the one-center edge going to France and Turkey.

MOSCOW The 3rd Territorial Whorde, after sacking Constantinople, has been ordered to turn its attentions to the virgin provinces of Ankara. The order of the day is "Burn!, Burn!, Burn!"

ANKARA (DWE) How's that again, Russia???

GAME OPENINGS & ETC.

- 1) Donald Cowan (1605 8th Ave. S.W., Decatur, Ala. 35601) has begun a new magazine, Attacker, which will specialize in regular and variant games. Encouragement will be made for the invention of new variants, and for the playing of these variants. The first few "charter players" will be given a great discount for all other games in Attaquer. Game fees are $4 for the first game and $3 for additional games. Subscriptions are 10/$1.50.

- 2) Brob'ingnag, long regarded as the magazine for the serious Diplomacy player has, with issue #90, passed from John McCallum's hands to those of Eduard Halle (Box 903, Gainesville, Fla. 32601). Ed has begun publication with #91, out last week, and announces game openings at $3, subs at 10/$3. Happily, McCallum will continue to run his rating lists in Brob, and will, one hopes, also continue his thoughtful commentary on the Diplomacy scene. Brob, now under its third editor, is the second oldest active Diplomacy magazine (Graustark being the eldest).
- 3) La Guerre from Buddy Tretick (3702 Wendy Lane, Silver Spring, Md. 20906) has openings in regular Diplomacy, plus a number of variants (including kriegspiel, blitzkrieg, hyperspace, anonymous). Fee is $3 to new players (new to LG), $2 to current players or to those joining two or more games.
- 4) Robert Perkins (2775 Carlaris Rd., San Marino, Calif. 91108) has openings in the second game in his magazine Spald, Jr.. Fee for regular Diplomacy is $1, and for a variant called "Continent" -- based on South America -- the fee is $1.50. Subs are 12/50¢. Few bargains like this around.
- 5) Charles Reinsel's Big Brother will absolutely run no more games, so Charles asks that no more requests for game positions be sent to him.
- 6) Hal Naus, publisher of Adag and its numerous subzines, has moved to 1424 National Ave #9, Chula Vista, Calif. 92010.
- 7) Conrad von Metzke, publisher of Costoguada, Dies Irae, and Verbal Chaos, Ltd. has moved to 3716 Columbia, San Diego, Calif. 92103.
